The Company Through the Years

Our history at a glance

Mirora is a reliable, productive translation agency founded in 1997 as a result of the efforts made by two fellow students who were passionate about pursuing their dreams. Since the day it was founded, it has offered professional solutions to the needs of its clients and business partners.

Mirora, which became one of Turkey's best translation service providers in a very short time after its establishment, has strengthened its commitment to grow through its offices set up in Dublin (2006) and Dallas (2016).

As a result of the quality policies and systems we have been implementing without compromise, Mirora received its 9001 QMS certificate in 2007 from the British Standards Institute bsi., and today we hold ISO 9001:2015 certification, the latest version of that standard.

We are different.

We do what we love, where we love!

We are a global translation company based in Istanbul-Turkey that operates on three continents, offers professional solutions for your translation, localization and language consultancy needs in all languages and fields of activity.

→ The core of our operations is an internal team of Turkish full-time translators, project managers and page design staff; not project-based, "virtual" groups of freelancers, working from home.

We speak the languages you don't!

We are a member of various professional associations and have established alliances with partners who are certified language service providers performing high quality and customer-oriented works all around the world.

Today, through our reliable native speakers of each target language, we offer services for over 40 language pairs.

- We provide tailored solutions for our clients' special requests in all our service projects from quoting to job delivery. Our corporate aim is to attain PERFECTION without compromising SPEED, CONFIDENTIALITY, RELIABILITY and ACCURACY both in our job and in our relationships with our clients.
- For language pairs that do not contain Turkish, we always cooperate with suppliers who are native speakers and live in the country of the target language.

Quality

is not simply a word to us but a concrete objective we never compromise.

Translation is a personal, subjective field requiring qualified labor but there are some irrefutable, objective criteria that help us achieve a high quality translation:

→ It should always be done by a native speaker of the target language.

→ Editing should be done by a second linguist who's also a native speaker of the target language.

→ Translators should always be subjected to continuous training, measurement, evaluation and feedback processes.

Are you ready to help your clients in any language you like?

Even if people can speak English well, when they see marketing materials or WEB sites in their own mother tongues, they spent more time to read the content and they become buyers easier.

That is the reality spoken almost in all sales & marketing resources with various statistics.

Mirora can translate the content of marketing material as if they are written in target audience's native languages with our professional, competent, native teams.

What are your targeted audience's languages?

Our Secret Sauce

We reflect your originals as we consistently work with experienced, expert professionals who are accomplished in their own fields.
